	Just right	Searching for schools was very easy and it is advisable to keep that up and maintain.
	Just right	Overall, the tool was highly intuitive and provided the information I was looking for as it related to the research study.
	Just right	the map is really great.
	Not enough information	It did work pretty easily to add more to compare and made it obvious only a max of 3 was possible. Also, for the majority of the stuff I thought was weird, there was an easy to click link to explain it.

	Just right	Finding schools to compare was easy.
	Just right	Search by name worked a lot better than I expected. I'd seen this tool before but ignored it.

Just right

I like the comparison tool. It was easy to use and gave lots of information

I liked the fact that you could change the type of benefits being received or plan on receiving and then clicking on "update" to see how the different programs affected the cost of attending the schools interested in. I also liked the "highlight differences" option to be able to see the differences between the compared schools easier.....the highlighting of the table fields were a great touch. Lastly, I loved the fact that there were indicator warnings for particular schools that have been under scrutiny for various reasons....this would let the searcher know to be leery or cautious about attending those schools or to let them know that they have to do more research on them before enrolling.

Just right

Loved side by side comparison Loved highlighted difference

If you had any frustrations or confusion with the tool, please tell us about them here	What would you say to a GI Bill beneficiary who asked about the GI Bill Comparison Tool?
Open-Ended Response	Open-Ended Response
The tool was very easy to use	Definitely use it
None	Good resource
	its a valuable tool to compare schools y
I couldn't find schools that I was looking for. I'm not sure if all of the schools are loaded in the system. When I inserted Medical I received a mixture of medical schools and on the job training.	I need to know an exact number for cost of the school and living cost.
None, was user friendly	Wasn't it neat
	To go ahead and review because it is quite a useful and helpful tool.
None
Nothing frustrating or confusing but would recommend including a different color coding system when using the side-by-side comparison tool (perhaps a red/yellow/green system versus using the same color for all categories).	I would encourage them to use it.
on the map some colleges came up as being in other states, like a PA school in Washington DC.	Use it. its a great tool. its the best tool to find out about mha nationwide
Mostly the tool is straightforward but I don't like that it's got a lot of information that I really don't need but not anything about the available programs (doctors, computer science).	If they are trying to decide between schools, this would probably help. I didn't know that one of the doctoral schools I was interested in was so expensive.
As a Montgomery and Post 9/11 vet the calculator didn't work for me
none	good resource its very helpful to compare schools to see which one you will benefit more from
none at all	USE IT, IT IS VERY HELPFUL. YOU CAN CHECK SEVERAL SCHOOLS AT ONE TIME
NO PROBLEMS WITH THE TOOL
I had issues selecting schools to compare at first. Took me a couple minutes to figure out. Search by location should have an option to hide the map once you've chosen a location. It makes the information to the left of the map too cramped to read easily.	Use as your first stop.
	It's a good resource for checking out whether or not a school you want to attend is a good choice, and for finding other options.

None

That it's easy to use and quick in giving useful information

No frustrations or confusion.

I would tell them to seriously check it out because they could find schools that are better for them in terms of cost and return on investment upon completion of their education.

None

Easy to use and self explanatory

Please provide the verification code located in the recruitment email so we can compensate you for your time
