The 1095-B is an IRS tax form that shows the period that you had health coverage through the VA for the tax year. Keep this for your records, but due to changes in the Affordable Care Act this form is no longer required to file your federal taxes.

Note: Some states may still have requirements and tax penalties around health coverage. States with requirements for health coverage as of January 2022: Massachusetts, New Jersey, Vermont, California, Rhode Island and District of Columbia (Washington D.C.).
