Section Name

1095-B tax document (proof of health coverage)

The 1095-B is an IRS tax document that shows the period that you had health coverage through the VA for the tax year. Due to changes in the Affordable Care Act, this document is no longer required to file your federal taxes; however some states may still require proof of health coverage.

*States requiring proof of coverage as of January 2022: Massachusetts, New Jersey, Vermont, California, Rhode Island and District of Columbia (Washington D.C.)
